Student Questionnaire and Recommendation Forms - Grades 5 - 12

The following questionnaire is to be answered by students entering grades five through twelve without any assistance from family or friends. Please return the questionnaire to Boca Christian along with the application.

One church and two teacher recommendations must also be returned by the appropriate persons to Boca Christian in the enclosed envelopes. All forms must be in before the Admissions Committee can review the application or schedule parent or student interviews. These recommendation forms are treated confidentially.

Each teacher recommendation form is to be given to an academic teacher, English and math preferred; science or social studies teachers are also acceptable. The church recommendation form is to be given to your pastor, Sunday School teacher or the youth pastor of your church.

Please be sure to fill in the top portion of each recommendation form. Before giving it to the appropriate person, enclose it in one of the self-addressed envelopes included.

STUDENT COMMITMENT

Boca Christian School is committed to the teachings of the Bible. It is founded on the belief that knowing God personally through faith in his Son, Jesus Christ, is the starting point for a person to be truly educated. We believe there should be a direct relationship between what a Christian student believes and how he or she behaves. We believe that there are specific principles found in the Bible for behavior. Therefore, we require that all students abstain from the use of tobacco, alcoholic beverages, marijuana, narcotic drugs, illegal drugs, profane language, and immoral behavior both on and off campus of Boca Christian School. Violation of this rule is grounds for dismissal from Boca Christian.

As a student of Boca Christian School, do you have any problem obeying this rule? _____

Are you or have you ever been involved with drugs or alcohol? _____

Is your language and behavior honorable to God? _____

Our student handbook states that a true sense of Godly self-respect is the foundation of Boca Christian School. Self-respect is discussed in detail in our handbook. We see your signature below as a firm commitment that each student voluntarily makes when choosing to attend Boca Christian School. As a student of Boca Christian you will be expected to be a positive influence in your social relationships and a responsible member of the community.

Please read the following, initial each commitment that you are in agreement with, and sign below.

As a student at Boca Christian School, I will commit myself:

To be a part of a school community that is dedicated to the glory of God, and to live in accord with what the school represents and believes. _____

To be a courteous, caring, responsive friend to my fellow students. _____

To be obedient and respectful to my parents. _____

To be obedient and respectful to my teachers. _____

To follow the school policies concerning student conduct, dress and life style as found in the Student Handbook. _____

To not be involved, whether in or out of school, in the use or possession of tobacco, alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs. _____

To walk out of a party where drugs and alcohol are present and/or being used. _____

To not be involved in gossip or profane language. _____

To not be involved in immoral behavior. _____
