Child Abuse Policy

In Compliance with Florida Statutes, Sections 1006.061 (2)-all faculty and staff of Boca Raton Christian School are required to report incidences of child abuse to the state authorities in compliance with the state law. Florida Law states that anyone who suspects child abuse is ethically obligated to report that abuse. Those persons who are legally obligated to report include school nurses, school teachers or other school officials, day care workers. Any professional failing to report or knowingly prevent another from doing so is guilty of second degree misdemeanor and may be prosecuted. Children are defined as persons under 18 years of age. Florida law protects those reporting from civil or criminal charges if the reporting is done in “good faith.” If you have questions on this, please consult with the school counselor or head of school, or see the booklet in the school office entitled Child Abuse and Neglect in Florida.
