

Final Rising 3rd Grade: Reading List

This is the suggested list of books and authors for summer reading. Students may read the books from this list or choose alternate books from the authors listed. Students may read independently or with an adult. To receive credit for each book read, students must have a parent or guardian initial and date each and submit the signed paper at the start of the Media Center class in the fall. Alternatively, students may log books on Beanstack through www.Clever.com. Students who choose to read books from the list, should complete at least 12 books and be prepared to discuss the books they have read from the list. The book in bold font is required. Students must complete the book summary form for the one required book.
